HONGKONG, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1902

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Beri-beri.

We have been so accustomed to hear of beri-beri being an incurable disease so far, that the news is very welcome of a private gentleman in Penak having discovered a cure for it. According to the Penak Pioneer, it appears he has experimented on several patients, and has cured every one of them permanently.

A Norwegian Decoration.

His Majesty the King of Norway has been graciously pleased to make Mr F. E.
Taylor, Statistical Secretary of the Imperial Chinese Maritime Customs, a Knight of the 1st Class of the Order of St. Olaf. The Norwegian Government has been the first to recognise the value of Mr Taylor's work in 1900 in taking charge of the Customs Service during the siege of the Legations.

P. and O. Co. and Borneo.

Mr Austen Chamberlain, speaking in the House of Commons, said that when the Eastern mail arrangements are revised he will bear in mind the suggestion that the Peninsular and Oriental steamers call at ports in British North Borneo, but in view of the small correspondence and intermediate navigation the change was hardly likely to prove justifiable.

The Art Journal.

The Art Journal for November (Messrs Virtue and Co., London), opens with 'Turner's Last Swiss Drawings.' Mr Dillon ably gives their historical connections, and draws attention to the many-sided character of Turner's work. There are reproduced in three pairs, the original sketches and the completed drawings of the same scenes. This illustration of method and style is most effective. Mrs.
Langridge contributes a capital description of Mr F. Shields's mural decorations in the Chapel of the Ascension, Baywater Road, London. This memorial chapel is open for meditation and prayer. The walls are covered with paintings, large and small, reproducing the history of Redemption. The artist has put aside conventional representations, and has seized the salient feature of the Biblical character or scene, and faithfully reproduced it. This unique piece of Protestant work is well sampled in this number. Dr Macmillan continues his Rochesterian with Larig Chiu. The Waddesdon Bequest of medieval antiquities is well described and illustrated by C. H. Read. The designs are as quaint as they are varied. In the course of Mr Haldry's appreciation of A. J. Warner-Brown's work, a large number of his best pictures are reproduced. The changeable magnificence of the Cornish coast 'jumps to the eye' even from these pages. The frontispiece is an original etching by Axel H. Haig, R.E., of Balmoral, from an unusual point of view. It is worthy of its place in a substantially good number.

Colonial Government.
It is customary to lay all the responsibility for delay in public colonial policy upon 'Downing Street.' We have had several instances of this tendency in Hongkong, when urgent public works—like waterworks—have been hung up 'because the matter must be referred to the Secretary of State for the Colonies.' The public do not know, of course, what the Colonial Secretary's instructions are to the Governors of Colonies, but the following interesting extract from a recent speech by Mr Chamberlain in the House of Commons throws some light on dark places. 'In my opinion, it is absolutely impossible for the Colonial Secretary, or what is commonly called Downing-street, to deal with every matter of detail in the administration of something like 40 Kingdoms off its own lat. That is absolutely absurd and ridiculous; and we have, therefore, trusted those whom we appoint. We have to take, in the first instance, the greatest possible care to secure that the best man is selected for every particular work which is required to be done; but having done so, and until it is conclusively proved to us that he is unworthy of our confidence, we have to place confidence in him in regard to matters of detail. We give him general instructions as to the lines of his policy, and the principles which he is to pursue, but as for any attempt on my part, or on the part of my Department, to look into and to examine every detail of a transaction which involves an expenditure of millions of money, I can only say that not only will I absolutely refuse to undertake it, but I should think that any man was a lunatic who did undertake it (laughter). Mr Chamberlain's remarks, in view of our experience of the government of Hongkong, make us wonder how much confidence he places in Hongkong's Governors.

Notes by the Way.

A severe earthquake was felt in Jamaica on the 22nd ult.

The Brough Comedy Company opened their season at Calcutta on the 12th ult.

In consequence of the split in the Irish party, the formation of a new Catholic wing, numbering thirty, is likely.

The Golf Championship of Ceylon has been won by Mr D. W. Watson, a previous holder of the title. The championship is played for twice a year.

H. M. S. 'Ocean.'

Towards the end of this month, a crew of 720 petty officers and men will be drafted to Devonport for Hongkong for the battleship Ocean, to be recommissioned on the Chi station.

Sugar Prospects.

The result of the debate in the House of Commons on the Sugar Convention has been received with the greatest satisfaction. Trading and mercantile circles believe that the West Indies will now be able to compete with the Continent on fair terms.

Red Sea Lighthouse.

The revolving light of the new light-house on Centre Pk Island (Zebairi Group), Red Sea, has now been lighted.
Three flashes in quick succession every ten seconds, and visible at a distance of 29 miles is the report.

The Liquid Fuel Experiment.

Telegrams in Rangoon exchanges state that 'the Admiralty has ordered portions of the boilers of the cruisers Bedford and Argonaut to be fitted with the appliance for the consumption of Liquid fuel.' In other telegrams, the Argonaut was mentioned in place of the Bedford.

Singapore Death-Rate.

The number of deaths registered in Singapore during the week ending November 22 was 212, giving a death-rate of 46.97. There were nine deaths at St.
John's. Fever again accounted for a large number of the cases, 57 being the number that week. Over two-thirds of the deaths were of Chinese.

Royal Welsh Fusiliers.

The following telegram is dated Calcutta, November 24:—'The transport Udham arrived from Hongkong to-day with the 2nd Royal Welsh Fusiliers, and left this evening for Meerut by special troop train.' It may be fairly assumed that it was the Fusiliers and not the Udham that went on to Meerut.

Hongkong-Bound Vessel Lost.

The timber-laden vessel that drifted ashore on the coast of Formosa if the new schooner Olefin Petersen from New What-com for Hongkong, which was abandoned at sea on the 5th of October last with loss of rudder, the crew being taken on to Nagasaki by the U. S. S. Princeton.

Army Promotion in India.

Earl Percy, in the House of Commons, on being questioned on the system of army promotion in India, replied that the number of appointments as Major Generals and Lieutenant Generals under the new system being too few to maintain the flow of promotion, it was proposed to increase them.
Correspondence has been proceeding between the War Office and the India Office for that purpose. Certain proposals have been already accepted in principle, and there has been an increasing number of appointments. The final report is expected shortly.

The P.M.S.S. 'Korea.'

We have already described the fine steamer Korea belonging to the P.M.S.S.
Co., and may mention that a large number of residents took the opportunity given them this afternoon of verifying all we have said. There was constant communication between the shore and the Korea, and some between the Regatta Flagship and the big new steamer. One of the leading features of the 'At Home' to-day was the enormous crowds of Chinese who swarmed around the decks. It is needless to say that our old friend, Captain Seabury (who is a great admirer of old China), was an excellent ruler of the hospitalities on his fine new ship. She has a side like a four-storey house, but you are very well satisfied when you get up on deck; and an inspection of the steamer showed that in decoration, accommodation and in every appliance she is thoroughly up to date, and altogether is one of the finest vessels that has ever come into this Harbour. We are assured she is an exceptionally good sea boat. Best wishes to the Korea and her good Captain were pledged on board.

WHAT IS A COUGH?

A spasmodic effort to expel the mucus from the bronchial tubes. A cold affects a more abundant secretion of mucus, and when the lungs and bronchial tubes are inflamed, they are extremely sensitive to the irritation. Unless care is taken, the cold may result in pneumonia, which is the more likely but equally fatal consumption may set in. Do not neglect a cold or cough. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It always cures and cures quickly. For sale by All Dealers; WATKINS Ltd., General Agents.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

P. and O. Company.

The Secretary of the Peninsular and Oriental Company stated on the 27th ult. that the question of the headquarters of the Company is still unsettled.

Venezuela.

Private telegrams were received here to-day, to the effect that the statement as to the ill-treatment of British and German subjects in Venezuela was as yet unconfirmed.

The Nicholson Memorial.

The execution of the Nicholson Memorial statue at Delhi has been entrusted to Mr Thomas Brock, R.A., and the design selected is one of bronze and represents the General in the act of rallying his men for the final assault of Delhi. It will be erected in the Nicholson Gardens from which the troops marched to the attack on the Kashmir Gate.

Reviving the Penjdeh Scare.

The London correspondent of the Englishman, writing on the 25th ult., says that the Odessa correspondent of the Daily Mail telegraphs:—Russia is moving 10,000 soldiers towards the frontier of Afghanistan by way of the Central Asia Railway. The only reason given for the movement is that preparations have to be made in view of possible eventualities.

Rattan Store Destroyed.

At 1.30 a.m., to-day, a fire broke out in Mo Hung Chung's rattan store, No. 468, Queen's Road West, premises owned by Pang San Kwong, of 318, Dea Vieux Road West. One of the sheds was gutted before the Brigade arrived on the scene. The firemen then succeeded in confining the conflagration. The origin and damage have not been ascertained, but the store is insured in various companies for $10,000.

King Edward Hotel.

By kind permission of Lieut.-Col.
Birdwood and officers, of the 10th Bombay Light Infantry, the Band of the Regiment, will play the following selections during dinner at the above Hotel, on Friday evening, the 12th inst., from 7.30 to 9 p.m.:— A. Franziska..... P. M. Costa.
Venetian Song..... Buzaclos.
Shop Girl..... Ivan Caryll.
Promise of Life..... Cowen.
Souvenir d'Avril..... D'Appert.
Happy Dances..... A. Godfrey.
GOD SAVE THE KING.

A Big Mail.

Detective-Sergeant Kerr made a big haul of explosive material on the 2nd inst., when he paid a visit to No. 28 Godown, Kowloon. He seized 20 cases of percussion caps, &c., to the value of $5,000, because they were not entered in the Tax Insurance. Tau Yin is the proprietor of arms shop at 356 Queen's Road West. The case was heard by Mr Kemp a week ago and a fine of $250, with confiscation, imposed; however, a technical objection being raised by Mr Holmes, Mr Kemp granted a rehearing, which took place yesterday. The Magistrate revised his fine, imposing simply the nominal penalty of $1, taking into consideration the value of the confiscated property.

A New Play.

Sherlock Holmes, a new play, written around Sir A. Conan Doyle's familiar creation, was produced for the first time at the Theatre Royal, last night. Whatever the critics may think or say, the collective opinion of audience, expressed in hearty hand-clapping, the disinterested 'bird,' or the more deadly silence which chills, kills, and entombs, is the best judgment of the success or failure of a piece and its performance. The judgment of this supreme court, last night, was unequivocally flattering. Not a situation passed without a responsive beat from the heart of the house in front, and the final picture, leaving the junior partner in the firm of Negus and Co., on the threshold of a new and happier life, was cheered to the echo. We do not grudge Miss Walcott or her co-partners in the production this flattering understanding of audience, expressed in hearty

life, was cheered to the echo. We do not
in the production this flattering understanding of audience, expressed in hearty
hand-clapping, the disinterested 'bird,' or
the more deadly silence which chills, kills,
and entombs, is the best judgment of the
